

the Middle East Branch of the Armed Forces Institute for which he was awarded the Legion of Merit. Later, he served under General MacArthur in the Far East and was selected to organize a post hostilities educational plan in the Pacific.

During his notable career in education, he has served, at various times, as a lecturer at the University of Iowa, an assistant and instructor at both Harvard and Radcliffe; and he has been a visiting professor at the University of Kansas, Amherst, Mt. Holyoke and the Harvard Summer School.

In addition to his work with the United Nations Association in Maryland, our guest this evening is a member of many honor, service and charitable organizations including Phi Beta Kappa, the American Civil Liberties Union and the Planning Council of the Greater Baltimore Committee. All of us can feel truly proud and grateful that this man works and lives among us for his contributions to society are certainly making this State and Nation a better place in which to live.

Ladies and Gentlemen, I have the honor of presenting to you this evening the distinguished President of Goucher College, Dr. Otto F. Kraushaar.

REMARKS, INTERNATIONAL CLUB

ANNAPOLIS

January 27, 1965

Ambassador Megalhaes, Mr. Rivinus, Mr. Berney, distinguished guests and ladies and gentlemen:

This is the second occasion in the past two months that I have been accorded the pleasure of extending a warm welcome to Maryland to His Excellency, the Brazilian Ambassador, Mr. Megalhaes. I am happy to say that both occasions were related to Maryland's association with the State of Rio de Janeiro in the partners of the Alliance Program which, as many of you know, has taken firm root and is flourishing here and in Rio.

On December 11, Ambassador Megalhaes and I attended the Maryland Partners of the Alliance dinner in Baltimore and listened while a delegation of Marylanders reported on their successful trip to Rio de Janeiro to inaugurate the Partners Program. Earlier this month, the flag of the State of Rio de Janeiro flew proudly above our State House
